You can have a jet ready in two hours. Executive Jets Asia, one of the few premier jet charter services in Asia with their own fleet of luxurious Bombardier Lear Jet aircrafts, is just a phone call away.

Types of aircraft available: Learjet 60, Learjet 45, Learjet 35A

Facilities: All three jets offer luxurious and spacious interiors bedecked with luxurious wood veneers, rich leather and fine fabrics, and the planes are also fitted with medical evacuation facilities. The Learjet 60 features a gourmet galley and an executive club seating arrangement in the plane's rear so you can conduct business meetings while in flight.

Jet Aviation Asia Pacific

One of the world's biggest providers of private jet charter services, Jet Aviation's variety of executive charter jet services is available to corporations and individuals alike. It has three international coordination centers in Zurich (Switzerland), Teterboro (New Jersey), and Hong Kong that arrange all planning and reservation needs 24 hours a day.

Types of aircraft available: Learjet 45, Gulfstream 200, Challenger 604, Global Express

Facilities: Pre-arrival services include use of executive lounges and conference rooms. On board the luxurious 12-seater Global Express, passengers can expect exclusive amenities such as an airshow system (an integrated cabin management system that controls the temperature and provides communication, video and music entertainment among other things), two 18-inch plasma displays, and a galley.
